

Jacqueline Kutnik-Bauder

703 Atalanta Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63119 • (314) 962-8122 • jacqueline@rendermind.com

R EDUCATION R

Washington University in Saint Louis Schools of Law and Social Work, St. Louis, Missouri. Juris Doctorate & Masters in Social Work obtained in 1997

- Honor Scholar Award for top 10% yearly average 1996-1997
- Winner of the 1996 American College of Trial Lawyers' Lewis F. Powell, Jr. Award for Excellence in Advocacy
- Recipient of American Jurisprudence Award for Constitutional Law I
- Recipient of the 1997 Silver Medal for Advocacy awarded by the Pro Bono Association of Washington University School of Law
- 1996 Negotiation Competition Finalist

University of California at Davis, Davis, California, Bachelor of Arts degree obtained in 1989

- Graduated cum laude in Political Science
- Participated in an education abroad program through the University of Stirling, Scotland 1987-88

R PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS R

- Presentation entitled "Television and Toys: Using Popular Culture to Teach Practical Drafting Skills," delivered at the 2011 Western Regional Legal Writing Conference, August 26, 2011
- Panelist discussing "[w]hat law schools are doing to meet the perceived demand of legal employers that law graduates be practice ready" at the New England Legal Writing Conference, December 10, 2010
- Presentation entitled "Superhero or Supervillain? Teaching Persuasive Legal Writing Using a Superhero Metaphor" delivered at the 14th Biennial Conference of the Legal Writing Institute, June 28, 2010; the Ninth Annual Rocky Mountain Legal Writing Conference, March 14, 2009; and the Comic-Con International Conference, July 2007
- Presentation entitled "Trial and Appellate Practice: From Making a Record to Oral Argument," delivered at the Missouri Legal Services Statewide Conference, October 23, 2009
- Authored and presented "The Fundamentals of Legal Writing" a ten hour pro bono training program for paraprofessionals at Legal Services of Eastern Missouri, June 2008

- Published “Case of the ‘Back Tapper’ and Other Examples of How Schools Hold Children to Higher Standards than Adults,” in the Saint Louis Lawyer, August 2006
- Authored and presented “Issues that Affect Children with Disabilities,” at the Missouri Bar Continuing Legal Education program titled Representing Children and Adults with Disabilities, 2005
- Drafted all education related information published on the public access portion of the statewide Legal Services website, 2003-2006
- Published “Education Advocacy,” in the Foster and Adoptive Care Coalition Newsletter, August 2003
- Published a book review of "Interpersonal Violent Behaviors: Social and Cultural Aspects," in the Newsletter of the National Organization of Forensic Social Work, Spring 1996

R LEGAL EXPERIENCE R

Saint Louis University School of Law, Assistant Professor of Legal Writing (2006 - present)

- Responsible for teaching a variety of different courses:
 - Legal Research and Writing, a two semester basic research and writing course for first year law students
 - Appellate Advocacy, a one semester upper division writing class that focuses on advanced persuasive techniques
 - Pre-Trial Civil Litigation Drafting, a one semester upper division writing course that focuses on drafting persuasive complaints, answers, interrogatories, motions, memorandum of law and other common civil litigation documents
 - Missouri Civil Procedure, a summer course that focuses specifically on the similarities and differences between the federal and Missouri rules of civil procedure
- Developed specialized materials used by a majority of the department to assist students in learning the fundamentals of research and writing
- Member of the Law School Curriculum Committee and Academic Standards Committee
- Member of the Legal Research and Writing hiring committee
- Mentoring and informal training of new faculty

Legal Services of Eastern Missouri, Managing Attorney for the Children’s Legal Alliance (2000 - 2006)

- Responsible for all aspects of supervision and training for staff attorneys and administrative personnel
- Represented clients in federal court, state court, administrative hearings and other education related meetings
- Provided legal analysis of education related legislation upon the request of state representatives
- Developed “The Basics of Advocating for Special Education Students,” a four hour training program for clients and lay advocates that included a 65 page practice manual
- Created “Developing Effective IEPs,” an eight hour training program for clients and lay advocates that included a 135 page practice manual

Jacqueline Kutnik-Bauder

703 Atalanta Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63119 • (314) 962-8122 • jacqueline@rendermind.com

- Provided training on special education advocacy to over 650 social service workers and parents/guardians
- Chaired Needs Assessment Committee as part of LSEM's strategic planning process
- Member of the Missouri Legal Services Statewide Collaborative Task Force, a task force responsible for coordinating collaborative efforts between the four Missouri legal services programs

Youth Advocacy Unit of the Missouri State Public Defender's Office, Assistant Public Defender (1997 - 2000)

- Represented over 300 Juvenile clients in the St. Louis Family and Criminal Courts
- Handled approximately 65 bench trials, certification hearings and contested disposition hearings
- Represented clients in depositions, motion hearings, competency hearings, detention hearings and appellate practice